Glendale, New York — On March 28, 2008, the Queens County Democratic Organization endorsed Elizabeth Crowley for the New York City Council.

Congressman Joe Crowley, Chair of the Queens Democratic Party says that, “Elizabeth will provide the leadership necessary to serve the needs of the 30th District of the City Council. She is committed to improving our schools, providing for the needs of our seniors, and preserving the character of our neighborhoods.”

In response to her endorsement, Elizabeth said, “I am proud to have the support of the Queens County Democratic Organization, especially as it is the most ethnically diverse and truly democratic County Party within the City of New York.”

###

Elizabeth Crowley has spent her entire life in the 30th district, born and raised in Middle Village, and currently resides in Glendale. As an educator, who is raising two children in our community, she cares very much about the future of our neighborhoods. As the next Council Member of the 30th District, Elizabeth will fight to protect our seniors, improve our schools, and to preserve our community’s character and quality of life. “Our community is the backbone of NYC, our people are hard working, our culture is rich and our fabric is strong.”
